Mr. Joseph A. Califano, Jr.
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Califano:

This is in reply to the memorandum of 15 November 1965 regarding legislative or other proposals for inclusion in the President's State of the Union Message.

I have no legislative or other proposals for inclusion in the President's State of the Union Message.

Legislation programmed for the second session of the 89th Congress by the Central Intelligence Agency relates primarily to updating of the authorities set forth in basic Agency legislation. These proposals will be forwarded in routine fashion to the Bureau of the Budget.

Sincerely,

(signed) W. F. Raborn

SUBJECT: 1966 CIA Legislative Program

1. The President in a Memorandum for the Heads of Departments and Agencies dated 15 November 1965 requested personal consideration of legislative or other proposals which he should make to the second session of the 89th Congress. In that same memorandum he requested material which the President could include in his State of the Union Message. A suspense date of 3 December was set by the President.

2. While it is doubtful that we would have any material for inclusion in the State of the Union Message, we wish to determine if there are legislative needs of any Agency component. Rather than submission of written reports or legislative proposals from each component, I suggest that you or your designated representative contact the undersigned for discussion of any such proposals. Thereafter specific proposals, if any, will be prepared for coordination and final approval.

3. The President's memorandum stressed the importance of legislative proposals being transmitted as early as possible in the second session of the 89th Congress. We are planning to submit any proposals to the Bureau of the Budget by the 3 December deadline. Consequently, your suggestions or proposals should be made known by 26 November 1965 so that they may be fully coordinated in legislative form for final Agency approval.

MEMORANDUM FOR

THE HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

Many of you have already made legislative recommendations to the Executive Office under established procedures, or have participated in preliminary discussions of legislation with White House staff. These are now under careful study.

As I did last year, however, I am again asking each of you personally to consider the legislative or other proposals which I should make to the second session of the 89th Congress and to the Nation in my State of the Union Address.

I would like you to suggest specific draft material relating to your area of responsibility which might suitably be included in the State of the Union Message. The material should come to my Special Assistant, Joseph A. Califano, Jr. by December 3d. The Bureau of the Budget should receive brief descriptions of any legislative proposals in support of State of the Union material which you submit by the same date, if such proposals have not already been submitted through usual channels. It is particularly important that legislative proposals be transmitted to this second session of the 89th Congress early in the session. Draft legislation must be submitted for the usual review and coordination at a sufficiently early date to make this possible.

I am seeking your assistance in developing and perfecting imaginative programs which will maintain our security, continue our prosperity, and improve the quality of life for all. But next year -- more than ever before -- you must press forward in your search for new programs to increase governmental efficiency, to eliminate waste wherever it is found, and to modernize our Government.
